James Thomas Altman

James Thomas "J.T." Altman, 61, passed away Tuesday (Dec. 19, 2006) at his residence, following an extended illness.

He was born Aug. 21, 1945, in Hamilton, Fla., to the late Lazarus Altman and Bessie Bryant Altman. He was a logger for Jim Belch. He was preceded in death by one granddaughter, Dellena Kaycee Westmoreland.

Survivors include his wife, Alice Tiner Altman, of Argyle; two daughters and sons-in-law, Kathy and Johnny Westmoreland, of Homerville, and Vicky and Terry Melton, of Fruitland; one son and daughter-in-law, William and Bonnie Altman, of Homerville; three sisters, Louise Gray and Nora Henderson, both of Statenville, and Alice McCullan, of Arcadia, Fla.; one brother, William H. Altman, of Valdosta; seven grandchildren; nine step-grandchildren; one great-grandchild; and several other relatives.

A funeral will be held Thursday at 11 a.m. at the Roundtree Funeral Home Chapel. Internment will be at Camp Branch Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery in Manor. The body will be taken to his son's home, on Leland Smith Road, this morning and will remain there until funeral time.

Roundtree Funeral Home of Homerville is serving the Altman family.
