

March 5, 2007

Julia Deen Blanton

Julia Deen Blanton, 72, of Brunswick, died Saturday, Feb. 17, 2007 in the Gracemore Nursing Home in Brunswick.

Mrs. Blanton was a native of Baxley and had been a resident of Brunswick since 1955. She was retired from the Wal-Mart in Brunswick after 20 years. Julia was a member of First Free Will Baptist Church of Brunswick. Her husband, John K. "Kim" Blanton and a son, Don J. Blanton, preceded her in death.

Survivors include: one daughter, Sheryl Pendergast (Bill) of Virginia Beach, VA; one son, Jim Blanton of Brunswick; grandchildren: Shannon Sellers (Sammy) of Brunswick, Delton Gay, II of Cape Coral, Fla. and Brittany Gay of Virginia Beach, VA; two great-grandchildren, Dustin Sellers and Donavan Sellers, both of Brunswick, and several nieces and nephews also survive.

Funeral services were held at 11:00 a.m. Tuesday, Feb. 20 from First Free Will Baptist Church in Brunswick with the Rev. Aaron Baldrige officiating. Interment followed in Brunswick Memorial Park Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Tommy Youmans, Donald Youmans, Jerry Kersey, Andrew Kersey, Linnie Johnson, Jr. and Royce Dykes. Honorary pallbearers were staff of Gracemore Nursing Home and employees of Wal-Mart in Brunswick. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Alzheimer Association, Glynn County Chapter, 3011 Hampton Avenue, Brunswick, GA 31520 or Brunswick Christian Academy, building fund. Edo Miller and Sons Funeral Home in Brunswick were in charge of funeral arrangements.